

Abhinav Education Society's
Institute of Management & Research Narhe, Pune-41

Faculty Development Program

on

“Seminar on Innovation Project Idea”

Event Overview:

Organized by Abhinav Education Society Institute of Management & Research Narhe Pune, the Seminar on Innovation Project Idea was held on October 11th, 2022. It aimed to foster creativity and explore innovative project concepts with practical applications.

Participants:

With 42 participants in attendance, including students, researchers, and professionals, the seminar provided a conducive environment for brainstorming and discussing innovative ideas.

Key Topics Covered:

Mr. Rajeev Khedkar, the guest speaker, facilitated discussions on ideation techniques, concept development, and evaluating the feasibility of innovation projects. Participants explored real-world examples and case studies to gain inspiration and insights into successful innovation initiatives.

Guest Speaker Contribution:

Mr. Rajeev Khedkar shared his expertise and experiences, offering valuable guidance on generating and refining innovative project ideas, enriching the seminar with practical insights and industry perspectives.

Interactive Sessions and Networking:

Interactive sessions encouraged participants to present their project ideas, receive feedback, and engage in collaborative discussions. Networking opportunities allowed participants to connect with peers and potential collaborators, fostering a culture of innovation and collaboration.

Conclusion:

The Seminar on Innovation Project Idea provided participants with a platform to explore and refine their innovative project concepts, fostering creativity, collaboration, and potential avenues for practical application. By leveraging insights from industry experts and engaging in interactive discussions, attendees gained valuable knowledge and inspiration to pursue impactful innovation initiatives.